- 125 1/2 Gallon Jar of Evelyn Mueller's Famous Pralines Judy & David Mueller, original Owners of KDJ Insurance
 The history of these pralines comes from David Mueller's mother - the best mother-in-law in the world - so credit must be given to her. Evelyn made and took pralines to every function and event she attended for 50 years, so they are well known and loved by many people and non-profit organizations in Austin. Therefore, in her memory, I make and donate her famous pralines to many Marion community fundraisers in the hope that they will not only be found delicious, but will pay tribute to the community that we have lived in for 49 years! The Marion ISD, where I taught for 21 of those years, was good to me and to our two children and the Marion community has also been good to KDJ Insurance Agency, which David opened in 1981. We are very happy to be a part of this community.
- 126 1/2 Gallon Homemade Bread and Butter Pickles Mary Jane Wahl Gerth
 Mary Jane was a 12 year senior at Marion; following her May 1962 graduation, she and my dad married in Aug of 1962. She was a very involved parent with the Marion schools as both my sister and I are graduates of Marion HS -- Me (Lisa Gerth Timmermann) in 1982, and my sister (Candee Gerth Mills - salutatorian) in 1989. Mom enjoyed chaperoning band trips during our high school times. She and Dad raised pigs at our farm outside of Marion from 1978 until 2016. She began working at Marion ISD in 1989, driving the special needs bus, and working in the elementary nurse's office as a nurse's aid. She retired in 2018. She learned how to can (mainly pickles) with my Grandmother (Oma Gerth), another longtime resident of the Marion area. Unfortunately, Mom & Dad didn't make their 60th anniversary, as we lost my Dad in Dec, 2020. She still enjoys traveling and being the "grands" biggest fan (All 3 MHS Grads - Dakota Timmermann, 2017, Tayler Mills (Valedictorian following his Mom's foot steps), 2019, and Trenton Mills, 2022).

You are welcome any time to come by and visit with them at 605 FM 465, across from St. John's Lutheran Church. Today they have donated a movie basket, with lots of "eats" for a drive-in.
- 141 Homemade Bread & Butter Pickles, B&B Squash, B&B Peppers (HOT), Homemade Bread, 3 Jars Strawberry, Blackberry, Blueberry Jellies Theiss' Tastes, Pastor Paul Theiss & Kelsey
 Pastors Paul and Kelsie Theiss are the proud parents of Elijah (2) and Saraya (7). They are residents of Marion and both are native Texans. They started "Theiss's Tastes" during COVID as a small side hustle to help pay off their student loans. Over the past few years, it has slowly grown into what it is today, offering homemade pickled, fermented, jellied, and baked items straight from their kitchen to yours. Pr. Paul, who serves St. John Lutheran church here in Marion, grew up on the corner of FM467 and Elm Creek Rd, where he learned to garden along side his father, Billy Theiss, who learned from his father, Henry Theiss, the former county commissioner. Over the past 25 years they have continued to grow locally grown, garden fresh vegetables together, selling their goods from a roadside stand just like Henry did. This year they gardened close to three acres of land and raised over seven tons of produce together. Aside from the church and the garden, Pr. Paul has also served as the percussion tech at Marion High School for going on five years, and serves both as a member and the chaplain of the New Berlin Volunteer Fire Department.
 Pr. Kelsie, who grew up in Goliad, took to baking at a young age alongside her father. As a member of the Goliad County 4H, she won numerous awards for her decorated cakes and bread. Today she contributes to Theiss' Tastes by making a variety of baked goods and an assortment of jellies. Having aced every assignment, Pr. Kelsie has nearly completed her alternative teaching certificate and beginning this school year will be teaching 8th grade English Language Arts at Barnes Middle School in Seguin. Along with baking and teaching, she is one of the co-leaders of Marion Girl Scout troop 5098, of which their daughter, Saraya, is an active member.
 Over the past few years, they have been featured in Seguin's Guadalupe County Living, even making the front cover last fall. To give back to the community, they have donated their wares to numerous local community benefits, St. John Lutheran Daycare, area teachers, members of the volunteer fire departments, and most recently the Marion ISD maintenance crew.
